

STAGE FIVE- RADICALS-

Wollstonecraft writes A Vindication of the Rights of Women 1791

France declares war on Austria and Prussia, April, 1792 Why?

Tuileries attacked- August 10th, 1792

Marseilles composed by de Lisle-August, 1792

National Convention meet-France declared a Republic-September 21, 1792 political spectrum?

Revolutionary Calendar introduced-September 22,1792

King goes on trial, October, 1792

Louis XVI executed on January 21,1793- Reign of Terror begins

Committee of Public Safety begun-April 6,1793

Maximum imposed-May 4, 1793

Law of Suspect passed- July 17,1793

Levee en Masse declared- August 23,1793

deGouges, Hebert, others executed for their criticism of Jacobin leaders - July-Dec.,1793

Girondins executed October, 1793

Marie Antoinette executed- October 16,1793

Priests and rebels executed by drowning in the Loire-December 12, 1793

Danton, Demoulins, St Just to the guillotine- April, 1794

The Great Terror-June 10-July 28 1794

Robespierre executed- July 28, 1794

Summarize- _____

